know the mystery of ignorance as well as that of knowledge within the infinitude of light appears the shadow of the unknown which translates itself to his consciousness as darkness the shadow of the thrice unknown darkness which as damascus tells us was the first principle of the egyptians the ineffable mystery of which they said nothing and of which our author says nothing this darkness comes forth from within outwards to the disciple s consciousness it spreads downwards in sinuous folds like a great snake symbolizing presumably the unknown and to him unknowable mysteries of the differentiation of the root of matter of the cosmos that was to be its motion was spiral sinuous unending vibrations not yet confined into a sphere not yet ordered but chaotic in unceasing turmoil a terrible contrast to the sweet peace of the light gradually changing from dark space or spirit into a fluid or flowing matter or moist nature that is presumably what the greek mystics would have called rhea the primal mother or matter of the future universe
