for most christians the thought of being involved in evangelism is intimidating they feel apprehensive perhaps because they feel unprepared on the other hand when christians are prepared they feel confident that they can personally share the good news with others evangelism a biblical approach will thoroughly prepare you because it covers every passage on evangelism and all the topics pertaining to evangelism in the new testament it begins by delving into the biblical foundations of evangelism starting from the basic questions of what is evangelism and why evangelize it covers such topics as praying people into heaven on being wise like a snake and what made paul so bold it concludes by discussing the practical how tos including approaching different people on their level it enables you to make evangelism personal this revised edition has an additional chapter on lordship salvation evangelism a biblical approach will equip you and give you the confidence to explain the gospel

Not by Sight 2013-04-30

spoken words are such a powerful tool in all sectors of life if words were not powerful how can negative words create so much damage words have held such incredible power since the beginning of time if we are going to get godly results we must repeat what god is saying about our situation your faith and your words must be synced together the results of what you are saying directly align with what you believe god spoke and there were results you have been empowered with the word of the lord that is able to bring change to your situation but you must speak it

as christians we re called to love our neighbors all our neighbors but is that even possible and can we truly love them well people often think of their neighbors as those already belonging to their tribe or community it s safe it s easy and it doesn t often cause conflict politically or religiously but in today's world everyone and everything is interconnected globally in an ever-changing cultural landscape while religious strife runs rampant is it feasible for Christians to live their faith boldly and lovingly while entering into a true relationship with neighbors of other faiths both locally and globally in bold as love pastor Bob Roberts shows you what it looks like to live out your faith daily in the global public square among people of other faiths Jews Muslims Atheists Hindus Buddhists while he admits that it can be challenging to engage people of other faiths whose beliefs are as strong as yours he demonstrates how to enter into this critical dialogue in a radical yet loving way we have to learn to speak with one conversation and give the same message everywhere to everyone he says we are commanded to love God and love others and sometimes that requires risky boldness Roberts invites you to respond to this call to live a life of fearless and loving engagement with the world so take the risk your faith wasn't made to live in isolation it's something you do face to face heart to heart hand to hand whether you are in a suburb of Houston or a village in India put away the fear and suspicion and instead answer the call to radically love others the way God loves and get ready to see your life and the lives of those you touch your family your community even your enemies transformed
