excerpt from the law of contracts vol 5 forms it was early recognized in planning for the treatise on the law of contracts which i have written that it was desirable if not essential that a book of forms should form a part of the undertaking i did not think it desirable how ever that i should personally undertake this part of the work it seemed better that one having fuller access to the files of large city offices should be asked to prepare a volume of modern forms the style of legal draftsmanship has changed greatly in recent years gaining in conciseness and clearness to secure the benefit of this improved draftsmanship and also to avoid the danger of presenting forms which had not survived the test of experience it was necessary to obtain forms which for the most part at least had been in successful recent use mr lewis who has prepared this volume has been in a position to obtain use of a great number of forms which full fill these requisites and i am glad to have the volume prepared by him associated with those which i wrote about the publisher forgotten books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books find more at forgottenbooks com this book is a reproduction of an important historical work forgotten books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy in rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition we do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works
