this book uses karl barth s theology as a resource for christian theology of religions for this purpose it examines barth s theology under the doctrinal aspects of revelation revelation and religion theological anthropology and election addressing questions such as the possibility of and context for revelation barth s understanding of religion the theological approach to the human being and soteriology furthermore barth s thought is put into conversation with other approaches in the field of theology of religions notably karl rahner s inclusivism and john hick and the pluralist paradigm it is shown that barth s theological system as a whole can serve as a resource for the christian approach to and interaction with those of other faiths or no faith at all this is achieved through maintaining a balance between the commitment to the own faith and the openness to the sovereignty of god impacting the whole of creation central to barth s approach is the challenge to the christian community to see their presuppositions challenged in the most unexpected circumstances while looking beyond human categories to affirm the dignity bestowed upon all of humanity

s theology with its starting point in the person of jesus christ is advocated as a framework for the members of the christian community as they live alongside those with a different faith from their own
