a bookstore can be a wonderful welcoming place of both commerce and curiosity that s the goal for woody an american recently transferred to england to run a branch of texts he wants a clean orderly store and lots of sales to show his bosses when they arrive from the states for a pre christmas inspection not easy given the shop s location in a foggy strip mall and things keep going wrong no matter how often the shelves are put in order before the doors are locked at night when the staff returns in the morning books are lying all over the floor many damp and damaged beyond repair the store s computers keep acting up errors appear in brochures and ads and orders disappear completely and even when the machines are turned off they seem to glow with a spectral gray light the hit and run death of an employee in the store s parking lot marks a turning point one employee accuses another of making sexual advances and they come to blows between one sentence and the next one loses his ability to read the security monitors display half seen things crawling between the stacks that vanish before anyone can find them desperate woody musters his staff for an overnight inventory when the last customers reluctantly depart leaving almost visible trails of slime shining behind them the doors are locked sealing woody and the others inside for a final orgy of shelving the damp grey silent things that have been lurking in the basement and hiding in the fog may move slowly but they are inexorable this bookstore is no haven it is the doorway to a hell unlike any other at the publisher s request this title is being sold without digital rights management software drm applied the days of the other are over in this age of excessive communication information and consumption what used to be the other be it as friend as eros or as hell is now indistinguishable from the self in our narcissistic desire to assimilate everything and everyone until there are no boundaries left the result is a terror of the same lives in which we no longer pursue knowledge insight and experience but are instead reduced to the echo chambers and illusory encounters offered by social media in extreme cases this feeling of disorientation and senselessness is compensated through self harm or even harming others through acts of terrorism byung chul han argues that our times are characterized not by external repression but by an internal depression whereby the destructive pressure comes not from the other but from the self it is only by returning to a society of listeners and lovers by acknowledging and desiring the other that we can seek to overcome the isolation and suffering caused by this crushing process of total assimilation
