investors have too often extrapolated from recent experience in the 1950s who but the most rampant optimist would have dreamt that over the next fifty years the real return on equities would be 9 per year yet this is what happened in the u s stock market the optimists triumphed however as don marquis observed an optimist is someone who never had much experience the authors of this book extend our experience across regions and across time they present a comprehensive and consistent analysis of investment returns for equities bonds bills currencies and inflation spanning sixteen countries from the end of the nineteenth century to the beginning of the twenty first this is achieved in a clear and simple way with over 130 color diagrams that make comparison easy crucially the authors analyze total returns including reinvested income they show that some historical indexes overstate long term performance because they are contaminated by survivorship bias and that long term stock returns are in most countries seriously overestimated due to a focus on periods that with hindsight are known to have been successful the book also provides the first comprehensive evidence on the long term equity risk premium the reward for bearing the risk of common stocks the authors reveal whether the united states and united kingdom have had unusually high stock market returns compared to other countries the book covers the u s the u k japan france germany canada italy spain switzerland australia the netherlands sweden belgium ireland denmark and south africa triumph of the optimists is required reading for investment professionals financial economists and investors it will be the definitive reference in the field and consulted for years to come

current inquiries into the political economy of financial policymaking in malaysia tend to focus on the high level drama of crisis politics or simply point to the limited impact of post crisis financial reforms given that politico business relations have remained close in so doing pundits ignore a number of intriguing questions what is the relationship between financial development and financialisation and how has it played out in the malaysian context and more generally how can a country like malaysia become significantly more financially developed yet fail to emancipate the financial system from political control a core element of the financial development discourse to unravel the complexities of this puzzle this book subjects the history and contemporary practices of financial policymaking in malaysia to scrutiny it argues that to understand financial development in malaysia its progress and reversals it is important to conceptualise it as a political rather than a merely technical process in so doing the book echoes a more profound concern in the political economy literature namely the evolving relationship between states and markets and the supposed retreat or reassertion of the state at a time of increasing financial globalisation the book can generate further insights into the evolving role of the state with regard to broader processes of development and marketisation as they relate specifically to finance
